

TRADES EXPO

GET A GREAT OVERALL RESULT

Alice Maloney and Mikhaila Hunter, with little terrier Chaos, are dressing down in tradie overalls but rocking an updo from Headmasters Academy, just one of the many stallholders at the Herald Sun Trades and Careers Expo this weekend. Yes, I know I'm being very "on message" but it's an excellent event so let everybody in your life who is trying to work out what they want to be know about it. If they're planning on being a journalist, I'd suggest they ignore that last sentence – I separated the subject from the verb and it ended up being a dog's breakfast not even Chaos would touch. I hear 150 exhibitors from all over Australia and beyond will be there with plenty of interest in sports-themed careers just as the London Olympics begin. Door 10, Melbourne Exhibition Centre, Southbank. Today-tomorrow, 10am-4pm. $6/$12, family $26.

careerexpo.com.au

